110 Power is included in the booth fee. If you require 220 power, there will be an additional charge of $125 for the weekend per unit, or you may bring a silent generator – which has to be grounded to earth and approved by the power company. Loud generators will not be allowed—no exceptions. If you checked yes to power, list what type of equipment you will need to plug in, including amps of each item. If you require more than 20 amps you are required to get 220 power. All 220 power is required to send us a picture of the plug at least 7 days in advance, or you will not be able to hook up. There will be NO POWER until Friday morning, May 12th. The generator will be turned off 1 hour after the event is over on Sunday May 14th.

If you come with bare wires or need an adapter from the power company, you will have to give the power company a $75 deposit which will be returned when the adapter is returned.

On a separate piece of paper, a list of all appliances needing electricity is REQUIRED. A picture of your 220 plug is REQUIRED 7 days prior to the event setup.

Food items to be sold and prices: (Please list all items, attach an additional sheet). If food items are not listed, the Department of Health will not let you sell those items. PROMOTER NEEDS LIST OF FOOD ITEMS BY AUGUST 30th, NO EXCEPTIONS.

Please note: you are required by the State of Rhode Island to have your Temporary Event RI Mobile Food Unit Department of Health Permit. Ask Amanda for paperwork if you require it.

Application agreement to MBA event guidelines:

I will be responsible for setting up and removing my exhibit. I will remove trash from my space at the end of each day. Dumpsters are provided by the MBA free of charge. I agree to recycle. I will remove my equipment and display no later than Sunday May 14th by midnight.

I understand I need a RI Department of Health Mobile Food Unit Permit or I cannot set up. These must be purchased from the DOH directly well in advance of the date of the festival and the cost is $100, payable to the State of RI.

I understand I need a permit to make sales (Rhode Island Tax ID number) and a RI Litter Control Permit. I understand I can purchase them the day of the event for $10 and $25 respectively. A check will be required made payable to the State of Rhode Island. This check will be picked up Sunday May 14th.

I acknowledge that the Health Inspector, Fire Inspector, Electrical Inspector and Building Inspector will be on site and will have all permits and Food Safety procedures in place. Any tents must be in accordance with NFPA701 and have a tag that states this. Mobile Food units must have fire suppression system. All wiring must be in compliance with code. No exposed wires.
